Corbett's voice and his shape don't correspond somehow. Philip Mooser and family have moved to Colorado for the winter. George B. Palmer has returned from a visit to his old home in Illinois. The transfer of names to the registration books has not yet been completed. Rev. John A. Bright will deliver a sermon in German Sunday morning at Glasco. The political orators are preparing to pack their campaign voices away for two years. W. S. Sadtler has resigned his position as chief bookkeeper of the Santa Fe auditor's office.

There was a crowd around Corbett's championship belt all day yesterday, even in the rain.

The supreme court and the Shawnee county grand jury will both convene the day after election.

Dr. H. W. Roby has sold two lots in Park addition in the western part of the city to J. H. Goddard.

On Thanksgiving day people can be thankful they didn't bet any more than they did on the election.

The crowd thought Corbett's boxing was too tame, but admired the way he punched the pig-skin.

Chief Lindsey says he has bet no money of his own on the election, although Lowelling will bet 20,000 plurality.

County Commissioner J. Lee Knight brought home from Colorado a deer which he killed in the mountains.

County Attorney Bischoff of Lawrence was in Topeka last night on business connected with the Tillotson-Manley libel suit.

A Topeka man who looked at Corbett said, "Why, I'd be willing to mix up with that fellow any time if I didn't know who he was."

Rev. G. D. Olden of the Second Baptist church says the colored people of his denomination are preparing to colonize Africa, eventually.

Chairman Richardson of the Democratic committee says that the prohibition vote this year will be smaller than it was two years ago.

A Newman, who has been helping manage the Crawford opera house at Omaha, is in Topeka to remain and will help manage the Grand.

The resignation of Freight Traffic Manager Hanley of the Santa Fe took effect yesterday. H. R. Nickerson also began his connection with the Mexican Central.

A Topeka young man who makes no pretense to goodness, saw a little girl on the street yesterday almost without shoes and he took her to a store and spent his last cent in buying her a pair.

Governor McKinley's private secretary has acknowledged the receipt of a scrap book containing newspaper clippings of all the comments of Kansas papers on Governor McKinley's recent trip through Kansas. The scrap book was prepared by W. H. Simpson of the Santa Fe advertising department.

Practical Jokers Frighten a Wellsville Girl.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 2.—Morgan Kay of Platte county has brought suit through his attorneys, W. A. Porter and Wilson O. S. Lowe of this city in the United States circuit court at Topeka against the Leavenworth Electric Railroad company for $20,000 damages for injuries sustained here in an accident last August. August 16 last, Kay, it is alleged, was traveling in a light spring wagon drawn by two horses and was driving parallel with the electric railway track on Fifth street between Shawnee and Delaware. The team became frightened at an electric car and unmanageable, throwing Kay out.

Kay, it is alleged, was seriously and permanently injured by the collision which confined him to his bed for fifteen days and rendered him incapable of attending to the management of his farm for two months.

A SERIOUS PRACTICAL JOKE.

Men and Boys Frighten a Girl Nearly to Death at Wellsville.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—From Wellsville is reported a deplorable occurrence, which was the result of an innocently conceived and simply performed practical joke. A bevy of young ladies, among them Miss Birdie Pasley, the 16-year-old daughter of Rev. Mr. Pasley, started out to amuse themselves by serenading a few of their girl friends, and their mission becoming known to a number of young men, the latter concluded, for a lark, to make an attempt to frighten the girls.

The girls observed, at intervals, dark forms hovering around in their vicinity, and some of the girls expressed, or at least professed, alarm. As they were passing a rather retired spot on one of the principal streets a number of men or boys made a mock demonstration, whereat all of the girls except Miss Pasley fled. She advanced in a spirit of bravado, exclaiming: "I'm not afraid of you," when one of the men sprang at her. She seized him by the collar and he fell helpless to the ground. The contrite jokers conveyed her to her home, in a semi-conscious condition, from which, at last information, she has not recovered.

A CRAZY WOMAN'S TANTRUM.

While Being Taken to the Asylum She Cries Out the Truth.

WICHITA, Nov. 2.—Charles Simmons, under sheriff, has returned from Osawatomie where he had taken Mrs. Hindermann, the insane woman from St. Marks, who was adjudged insane by a jury in the probate court.

The woman in his possession became frantic while on route and cleaned the smoking car completely, not even the conductor or brakeman remaining. After a severe tussle in which she threw the deputy about at will her hands were finally secured and by the help of the conductor, the wild woman was finally handcuffed. Even while thus held by the steel bracelets she succeeded in again cleaning the car.

Before she could be placed in a hack at Osawatomie she had succeeded in kicking a hole in a traveling man's valise, kicked a spittoon through a glass door and kicked a hole in a German preacher's hat.

PAINTED SCOTCH BLUE.

A Populist Banner at Emporia is Decorated by Halloween Celebrators.

EMPORIA, Nov. 2.—Last week the Pops here hung out from their headquarters an American flag with two or three stars in the blue field colored a bright yellow. Each day increased dissatisfaction was expressed, especially by the old soldiers, at this defacement of "Old Glory," until one day last week when some Grand Army men told the Pops they must take it down or it would be torn down.

Wednesday evening a banner was stretched across the street containing the portrait of S. J. Scott. Some time during the night a party of Halloween revelers succeeded in plastering it with about a quart of blue paint, and the Pops claim it was the work of the old soldiers. It is not believed, however, that old soldiers had anything to do with the painting.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Mrs. Hamilton, Who Shot Stelling at Arkansas City, Under Guard.

ARKANSAS CITY, Nov. 2.—Sheriff Skinner arrested Mrs. Hamilton last evening on a warrant from Judge Honsall's court, sworn out by Mrs. Stelling. She is charged with murder. Mrs. Hamilton is under guard at her home in the Hill block, being unable to be taken into court.

Apparently she takes the killing of Mr. Stelling quietly. She says she had to do it, and it was either his life or hers. Many are inclined to think that there may have been foul play, as Mrs. Stelling is quoted as saying her husband had over $100 with him when he came here. When killed he had only $6 in his pockets.

TRIED TO BREAK JAIL.

A Burglar Made a Desperate Effort to Overpower His Guards at Atchison.

ATCHISON, Nov. 2.—Joe Monroe, who was arrested with Jim Conway, for burglarizing a store at Shannon, made an attempt to break jail yesterday. Deputy Sheriff Ed. Donnellan and a trusty named Froehlich entered one of the cells at the county jail for the purpose of carrying out the dinner dishes. When Donnellan put in an appearance at Monroe's cage, a five pound weight was hurled at him, but missed its mark. Donnellan and Monroe then grappled, the latter dropping his revolver. Froehlich, the trusty, went to Donnellan's assistance with a club, and Monroe was laid out in short order.

road and until this week a conductor running between this city and Kansas City on the same road, finds himself the possessor of two wives. This is due to a decision rendered by Judge Alden of the district court at Kansas City, Kas., yesterday. Sheridan had secured a decree of divorce from his first wife and then married again. Judge Alden's decision sets aside the decree.

KILLED BY A FALL.

Philip Cool of Jefferson County Dies of Injuries Received in an Accident.

ROCK CREEK, Kan., Nov. 2.—Philip Cool, an old gentleman well and favorably known throughout Jefferson county, met with a serious accident on Monday evening, which resulted in his death at 9 o'clock this morning.

As he was returning from Silver Lake to his home here, he was thrown from his buggy. The shock rendered him unconscious, from which he never recovered. He leaves a widow and five children.

Little River Stocked With Fish.

WICHITA, Nov. 2.—A United States fish car arrived here yesterday, and was left standing on a side track at the Union depot, while the men in charge distributed the fish.

Dr. J. W. Shultz, of this city, had made a requisition on the government for 500 rock bass, 250 croppies, 250 Oswego bass, 50 ring perch and 50 silver cat. As soon as he learned that the car was here Shultz went to the depot and took out the fish, having them hauled to the Little river, where they were dumped in.

MURDER FOR INSURANCE.

Wholesale Killing of Colored Children in Tennessee to Stop the Premiums.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 2.—It is believed by the Tennessee state health board that the horrible practice of murdering young infants for insurance taken out on them is rapidly growing among the lower classes of the negro population, and an investigation is now in progress which promises to disclose a shocking condition of affairs.

For a long time the board has been closely watching the movements of certain insurance companies who make a business of selling risks on live infants and very young children and they have found that the practice has become so general that it demands immediate investigation and correction.

The committee which was appointed to look into the matter just made its report to the board of health, containing such startling information that the board has seen fit to address a circular letter to every physician in every city in the state asking for personal investigation upon his part.

LOCAL MENTION.

A six weeks old child of James Brennan of 505 Chandler street, died, and was buried yesterday afternoon.

Rev. W. L. Byers addressed a meeting of the Santa Fe shopmen at the shops yesterday noon in the interest of woman suffrage.

Miss Jennie Fuller died Wednesday night at her home at 1013 West 10th street of consumption. The funeral will be held at 10 a. m. Sunday.

Women of North Topeka to the number of ten have organized themselves into a relief society for the poor this winter on the north side. They do not expect to upset Mr. Wilder's plan for the poor of the city, but it is their intention to help the needy. The plan is simply to give entertainments and do needle work to raise the money. Mrs. R. H. Barber is president, Mrs. Clem Lyon is secretary and Mrs. J. T. Bell is treasurer.

John Leland and B. H. Carr, who are chummy because, perhaps, no one else will chum with them, were in police court. They had been loading about in the vicinity of Hoeland's stand at Second street and had seen a good chance to get some free smoking so they grabbed a box of cigars and ran—straight into the arms of an officer. The box was opened and found to be empty, so they were charged with vagrancy and fined $5 each.

IT WAS MURDER.

Station Agent Early Dies From the Wounds Inflicted by a Robber.

W. H. Early, the Rock Island station agent at Whiting, Kas., who was shot by a masked robber Wednesday night, died last evening at about 6 o'clock, after twelve hours of suffering. It developed that the bullet, which broke Early's thigh, plowed its way into the unfortunate man's intestines. After the shooting Early returned to the station, locked it securely and then crawled to the nearest house which was some distance away. Sheriff Naylor of Jackson county is in Topeka today looking for the murderer. He has a clue that leads him to believe that he is located in Topeka. Early made an ante-mortem statement yesterday afternoon. The sheriff has addressed this postal to the police officers in Kansas:

"Please arrest and hold a man five feet eight or nine inches tall, weight about 160 pounds, light complexion, dark mustache, about twenty-six or twenty-eight years old, wore a medium black hat, white shirt, lay-down collar, string tie, light gray overcoat, looks like a very old coat, colored pants, likely has a 38-caliber revolver on his person. I was ordered to shoot the C. R. I. & P. baggage man at Whiting, Kan., at 9:45 October 31, 1894, for the purpose of robbery. He wore a black handkerchief over his face when doing the shooting. He ran down the track toward Straight creek."

TODAY'S MARKET REPORT.

Furnished by the Associated Press to the State Journal.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Wheat was dull here today on higher cables, but later the market showed some nervousness over the foreign political situation and holders were timid and disposed to realize. Northwestern receipts were lighter at 800 cars. December started 1/2c higher at 53 1/2c, and after declining to 52 1/2c, rallied to 53.

With Liverpool 1/2c higher, corn opened 1/2c higher. The market was firm early, but later became weaker with some selling against calls. May started at 51 1/2c, advanced 1/2c more and then eased off to 51 1/4c.

Oats were in sympathy with corn. May opened 1/2c higher at 32 1/2c and declined to 32 1/4c.

Provisions were barely steady.

January pork opened unchanged at $11.50 and sold off to $11.80.

January lard started 2 1/2c higher at $6.57 1/2, declined to $6.85.

Estimates for Saturday: Wheat 170 cars; corn 200 cars; oats 135 cars; hogs 12,000 head.

Barley—Choice, 60 1/2c; medium, 54c; common, 50 1/2c.
